

I am writing in favor of maintaining New Jersey's current "Do Not Call" legislation in place. Quality of life in my home has improved greatly since participating in this program. Telemarketing is intrusive and disruptive. If I want to purchase something I will seek out and contact a vendor, no one has to call me to tell me what I am missing. The lack of non-solicited interruptions in my home is greatly appreciated and and do not want to see this change.